- (2) The competent authorities should have recourse to the process of non-binding mediation carried out by the EBA at an early stage of the process in the event of a disagreement. Such early EBA involvement should facilitate finding a resolution to the disagreement.
- (3) Cases concerning the settlement of disagreements between competent authorities should be examined primarily by the EBA Chairperson and in the absence of a settlement between the competent authorities by a restricted, objective panel. This shall consist of the Chairperson of the EBA and members or substitutes of the panel responsible for binding mediation, who neither are representatives of the competent authorities which are party to the disagreement nor have any interest in the conflict or direct links to the competent authorities concerned.
