

Marc Thévenin

Marc Thévenin is a Director at LCH SA, part of the Post Trade division of the London Stock Exchange Group. Mr Thévenin is acting as the Head of Audit for the EU based Clearing House.

Before 2017, Mr Thévenin worked as Chief Risk Officer for a leading European financial services company and previously as Financial Engineer for firms such as Morgan Stanley and Barclays. Mr Thévenin has a particular interest in financial innovation, risk monitoring and capital efficiencies as he developed business solutions in these areas and has overseen critical market infrastructures used by global sell-and buy-side institutions.

Mr Thévenin graduated in 1999 from ESSEC, Ecole Supérieure des Sciences Economiques et Commerciales, and is also a graduate in Economics from Paris Dauphine University. He holds the Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst designation.

Mr Thévenin is a member of the IFACI, the French Institute of Internal Auditors. He joined in 2021 the European Banking Authority's Banking Stakeholders Group.