

José ROSAS
Head of Division in the Financial Stability Department
Banco de Portugal

José Rosas has a degree in Management from the Instituto Superior de Economia e Gestão and joined Banco de Portugal in April 1993, as an economist in the Banking Supervision Department. He is Head of the Macroprudential Policy and Regulation Division in the Financial Stability Department after having worked in the Banking Prudential Supervision Department as Head of Division responsible for the banking policy advice, internal model validation, financial and prudential assessment of the banking system.

José Rosas is a member of the Supervisory Policies Network of the Single Supervisory Mechanism and is also a member of the Standing Committee on Regulation and Policy and is nominated as alternate of the Portuguese member of the Board of Supervisors of the European Banking Authority. He has in the past been a member of some substructures of CEBS and of the European Enforcers Coordination Sessions (EECS) which operates under the oversight of ESMA.