WHAT IS THE EBA?

With a view to improving the functioning of the European Union internal market, the EBA works to ensure a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence, and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS), the EBA works closely together with its sister authorities, the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA) and the European Securities Market Authorities (ESMA), as well as the Joint Committee and the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB).

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

¹ According to the Article 3(A) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS).
WHAT IS THE JOB ON OFFER?

Main purpose

As a member of the Operations Department, the Finance assistant will report to the Head of Finance & Procurement Unit working in the budget execution area, with a key role as part of the team processing financial transactions.

Main responsibilities

• To carry out financial initiation of transactions: budgetary transfers, commitments, payments, recovery orders;
• To provide support and assistance to operational initiation of financial transactions;
• To register third party invoices and credit notes;
• To process requests for legal entity (LEF) and bank account files (BAF);
• To liaise with operational actors in budget planning, monitoring budget execution, and contract management;
• To take part in periodic ex-post control exercises;
• To contribute to the development and implementation of financial procedures;
• To assist with EBA response to financial and other audits;
• Other tasks as may be required, which may necessitate a good knowledge of Microsoft Excel and Word.

WHAT DO WE OFFER YOU?

The EBA is an equal opportunities employer and is dedicated to recruit, develop and retain a diverse and talented workforce by upholding principles of equal opportunity and impartiality. To this end, the EBA warmly welcomes applications from all qualified candidates, regardless of age, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation or identity, disability, ethnic or social origin, religion or belief, and cultural background. All EBA staff members are committed to fostering an open and inclusive workplace culture. The EBA encourages the applications of women for positions where they are currently under-represented. For more information, please refer to https://www.eba.europa.eu/about-us/diversity-and-inclusion.

If you consider yourself to have a physical, mental, intellectual or sensory disability, please indicate any adjustments or arrangements needed, relating to your disability, to EBA-vacancies@eba.europa.eu, so that the EBA can ensure your full and equal participation in the selection process.

The EBA, as an EMAS registered organisation, is committed to continuously improving its environmental performance and reducing its carbon footprint. For more information, please refer to https://www.eba.europa.eu/about-us/sustainable-eba.

As part of the EBA team, you will play an active role in an organisation that makes a difference to the life of all EU citizens/consumers by contributing to financial stability across the EU and safeguarding the integrity, efficiency, and orderly functioning of the EU banking sector.

You will have the opportunity to change perspectives, to expand your network, to benefit from an enriched experience in a multinational and multicultural environment, to develop your career as well as new competencies.
Furthermore, you will be joining the EBA at an exciting time as the Authority expanded its mandate with the implementation of the European Markets in Crypto-Assets Regulation (MiCA) and the EU Digital Operational Resilience Act (DORA).

You will live in Paris. The French capital is one of the most inspiring cities in Europe. A walkable and well-connected city with close proximity to other countries in Europe, Paris offers a vivid cultural and culinary experience with its abundance of museums, architectural richness, sparkling monuments such as the Eiffel Tower, top designer shops, and beautiful parks.

The EBA is located at 20 avenue André Prothin, 92400, Courbevoie, France (Floors 24 to 27 of the EUROPLAZA tower), in “La Défense” area, the largest business district in Europe and the fourth largest in the world.

Your contract will be for a duration of 3 years and can be extended for an additional 3 years. Any further extension would be indefinite.

You will benefit from work-life balance with teleworking flexibility, learning and development opportunities such as language trainings, social integration as well as free access for children to the European school facilities.

As an indication, your basic monthly salary before any deductions or allowances can be found here. In addition to the basic salary, you may be entitled to a correction coefficient applicable to France and various allowances, such as expatriation allowance, household allowance, and family allowances.

More information about your rights and obligations can be found in the Staff Regulations and the CEOS.

12 Only qualifications awarded by EU Member State authorities or European Economic Area (EEA) authorities or qualifications recognised as equivalent by the relevant authorities will be taken into consideration. If the main studies took place outside the European Union, the candidate’s qualification must have been recognised by a body delegated officially for the purpose by one of the European Union Members States (such as a national Ministry of Education) and a document attesting so must be submitted with the application by the closing date.
HOW TO APPLY?

Candidates should submit their complete applications in English to the following address:
eba-ca-44-2023@eba.europa.eu by 8 January 2024 at 23h59 (Paris time). Only complete applications will be accepted and considered.

A complete application must include:

- A curriculum vitae in Europass format;
- A motivation letter;
- A completed eligibility criteria grid;
- If applicable, a copy of your diploma’s equivalence certificate, issued by an EU Member State (see footnote for Qualifications).

The EBA will disregard any application received after deadline. Candidates are strongly advised not to wait until the last day to submit their applications, since heavy internet traffic or internet connection issues could lead to difficulties in submission. The EBA cannot be held responsible for any delay due to such difficulties.

Professional experience indicated on the curriculum vitae is only counted from the date the candidate obtained the minimum requirements for recruitment indicated in the vacancy notice and if it is on a paid basis (including study grants or internship grants).

The exact start and end dates of all professional experience (in the format of “dd/mm/yyyy”) and whether it was full time or part time work must be clearly indicated on the curriculum vitae. Freelance or self-employed candidates must provide either a copy of the entry in the relevant trade register, or any official document (for example a tax return document) clearly showing the length of the relevant professional experience.

Details of any professional experience, training, research or studies must be given on the application form. Candidates must be able to provide supporting documents clearly showing the duration and nature of their professional experience upon request. PhDs may be counted as professional experience if the candidate received a study grant or salary during the period of the PhD studies. The maximum duration counted for a PhD is three years provided that the PhD has been successfully concluded by the closing date for applications of the selection procedure.

The address indicated on the curriculum vitae will be recognised as proof of residence to be used for defining travel reimbursements, etc. (if applicable).

WHAT IS THE SELECTION PROCEDURE?

A Selection Board will be established to assess the application documents (curriculum vitae, motivation letter, and eligibility criteria grid) of applicants with reference to the eligibility and selection criteria and to establish the final reserve list.

Candidates who do not meet all the eligibility criteria will be excluded from the selection procedure. Eligible candidates will then be scored on the essential technical competencies criteria. Those who meet all the essential technical competencies criteria will be scored against the advantageous technical competencies criteria. Those candidates who do not meet all the essential technical competencies criteria will not be assessed further.

13 All candidates shall be informed of the composition of the Selection Board in the acknowledgement of receipt for their application.
15 Article 30 and Article 3 of Annex III of the Staff Regulations.
The Selection Board will invite the shortlisted candidates (maximum of 15)\(^{16}\), who best correspond to the profile sought and on condition that they have achieved a score of at least 60% during the evaluation of applications, to the written test phase. Following the written test, all candidates (maximum of 7)\(^{16}\), who score the minimum of 50% of the total score, will be invited to the interview with the Selection Board. Interviews and written tests may be held remotely. Shortlisted candidates will be asked to provide supporting documents proving their eligibility before the written test phase.

After the evaluation of written tests and interviews, the Selection Board will draw up a list of the most suitable candidates (“reserve list”) to be proposed to the Appointing Authority. Only candidates who receive at least 60% of the maximum points at each part of the interview phase will be included in the reserve list that the Appointing Authority will decide to adopt.

Successful candidates who are placed on the reserve list will be informed accordingly. The successful candidate will be selected from the established reserve list which may also be used for the recruitment of a similar position depending on the needs of the EBA. When a vacancy becomes available, candidates on the reserve list may be contacted for additional interviews. It should be noted that inclusion on the reserve list does not imply entitlement to employment in the Agency.

In accordance with Articles 11 and 11a of the Staff Regulations (SR) and Articles 11 and 81 of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS) the successful candidate will be required to make a declaration of any conflict of interest before recruitment. The EBA’s Executive Director will examine whether the successful candidate has any personal interest which may impair his/her independence or any other conflict of interest in relation to the position offered and will adopt appropriate measures. To that end, the successful candidate shall inform the Executive Director of any actual or potential conflict of interest using a specific form. More information about the ethics requirements can be found on the EBA's website.

Please note that the Selection Board's work and deliberations are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden. Any contact made by the candidates or third parties with the members of the Selection Board in relation to the selection constitutes grounds for disqualification from the selection procedure.

EBA will ensure that candidates’ personal data is processed as required by Regulation (EU) 2018/1725\(^{17}\). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

IN CASE OF COMPLAINT AND APPEAL

Candidates who consider that their interests have been prejudiced by any decision related to the selection procedure can take the following actions:

Request for review of the decisions taken by the Selection Board

Within ten calendar days of the date of the letter notifying the candidate of a decision taken by the Selection Board, he/she may submit a written request for a review of such a decision, setting out the reasons for the request, to the following e-mail address: EBA-vacancies@eba.europa.eu

a) The candidate may lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations within the time limits provided for, at the following address:

\(^{16}\) In the case of equal performance, the number of candidates will be adjusted accordingly.

b) The candidate can submit a judicial appeal to the General Court under Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and Article 91 of the Staff Regulations. For details about how to submit an appeal, please consult the website of the General Court: http://curia.europa.eu/.

Complaint to the European Ombudsman

It is also possible to lodge a complaint to the European Ombudsman pursuant to Article 228(1) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and in accordance with the conditions laid down in the Decision of the European Parliament of 9 March 1994 on the Staff Regulations and the general conditions governing the performance of the European Ombudsman’s duties\(^{18}\). For details about how to lodge a complaint, please consult the website of the European Ombudsman: http://www.ombudsman.europa.eu/

Please note that complaints made to the European Ombudsman have no suspensive effect on the period laid down in Articles 90(2) and 91 of the Staff Regulations for lodging, respectively, a complaint or an appeal with the General Court. Furthermore, under Article 2(4) of the general conditions governing the performance of the European Ombudsman’s duties, any complaint lodged with the European Ombudsman must be preceded by the appropriate administrative approaches to the institutions and bodies concerned.
