Declaration of honour: I understand that the European Banking Authority ('EBA') requires the highest level of personal integrity from all staff. By ticking this box, I declare on my word of honour that the information provided in my application is true and that I am aware that any incorrect statements invalidate my application. I understand and accept that my application may be disqualified or rejected in the events of:
-failing to comply with the eligibility criteria stated in the related vacancy notice;
-failing to supply the supporting documents requested following my application.
I understand that if it is subsequently discovered that any statement I have made is false or misleading or I have withheld relevant information, my application (or appointment) may be disqualified according to the rules laid down in the EBA Decision on the Secondment of National Experts.

<sup>2</sup> Only qualifications awarded by EU Member State authorities or European Economic Area (EEA) authorities or qualifications recognised as equivalent by the relevant authorities will be taken into consideration. If the main studies took place outside the European Union, the candidate's qualification must have been recognised by a body delegated officially for the purpose by one of the European Union Member States (such as a national Ministry of Education) and a document attesting so must be submitted with the application by the closing date.
