The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent European Union Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EU) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010.²

The EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in the European Union banking and other relevant areas of the single market under its competence. It promotes public goods such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors. It works to guarantee a level playing field, strengthen international supervisory coordination, promote supervisory convergence and advise the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

An integral part of the European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS), the EBA works closely together with the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA) and the European Securities Market Authorities (ESMA), as well as the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB).

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

¹ According to the Article 2(f) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS)

² Regulation (EU) No 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010 establishing a European Supervisory Authority (European Banking Authority), amending Decision No 716/2009/EC and repealing Commission Decision 2009/78/EC (OJ L 331, 15.12.2010, p. 1)

The EBA is seeking a suitable candidate for the position of Policy Expert at its offices in Paris, France.

Job description

Main purpose

Under the responsibility of the Head of the Banking Markets, Innovation and Products Unit, the Policy Expert will play an important role in the EBA work on technology driven innovation in financial services and digital operational resilience or regulated institutions.

Main responsibilities:

- Contributing to the EBA work on monitoring technology driven financial innovation (digital finance) and identifying areas where a regulatory and supervisory response might be needed following priorities from the Digital Finance Strategy of the European Commission;
- Contributing to the EBA work on digital operational resilience and crypto-assets with a focus on ICT and security requirements for regulated institutions, incidents evaluation, cyber resilience testing and the monitoring and regulation of firms engaging in crypto-asset activities;
- Preparing policy stances, policy advice, technical standards, guidelines and reports related to digital finance and operational resilience;
- Coordination and cooperation with the EU competent authorities, contributing and providing support to internal committees and subgroups and their chairpersons;
- To the extent necessary, externally representing the EBA at a technical level in his/her area of expertise;
- Supporting and contributing to the other activities of the Banking Markets, Innovation and Products Unit.

Requirements

1. Eligibility Criteria

To be considered eligible, candidates must satisfy all the criteria listed below, by the deadline for submitting applications.

1.1 General

- Be a national of a Member State of the European Union, or a national of the European Economic Area (Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway);³
- Be entitled to his/her full rights as a citizen⁴;

⁴ Prior to the appointment, the successful candidate will be asked to provide a police certificate confirming the absence of any criminal record.

- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by the applicable laws on military service;
- Have a thorough knowledge of one of the official languages of the European Union⁵ and a satisfactory knowledge⁶ of another language of the European Union;
- Be physically fit to perform the duties linked to the post⁷.

1.2 Specific

1.2.1 Qualifications⁸

To be eligible, a candidate must have a level of education, which corresponds to completed university studies of at least three years attested by a diploma.

1.2.2 Knowledge of languages

For working purposes, as English is the working language of the EBA⁹, an excellent knowledge of the English language, both written and spoken, is required. Native English speakers will be tested to prove their second language skills, in accordance with section 1.1 of the vacancy notice.

2. Selection criteria

In addition to the above, the following selection criteria will be used:

- Proven knowledge of EU regulation related to the area of digital finance, operational resilience and/or crypto-assets market;
- At least one year of proven full time professional experience in the area of operational resilience (e.g. ICT and security requirements, incidents evaluation, cyber resilience testing) and/or crypto-assets (blockchain technology, crypto-assets products and services);
- Proven experience in drafting technical reports and/or policy documents;
- Experience in providing information and giving presentations to management;

Applications will be assessed based on the Eligibility and Selection criteria specified in sections 1 and 2 of the vacancy notice. Candidates are required to clearly indicate in their CVs how they acquired the knowledge and experience allowing them to meet the above-mentioned selection criteria, and give specific examples.

It would be advantageous for the candidate to have:

- Knowledge of the functioning of innovative financial technologies and products (e.g. artificial intelligence, blockchain, cloud, RegTech);

⁵ The official languages of the European Union are: Bulgarian, Croatian, Czech, Danish, Dutch, English, Estonian, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Irish, Italian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Maltese, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Slovak, Slovenian, Spanish, and Swedish.

⁶ The knowledge is required at least at B2 level. The assessment at B2 level is done in accordance with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) (CEFR language self-assessment grid).

⁸ Only qualifications awarded by EU Member State authorities or European Economic Area (EEA) authorities or qualifications recognised as equivalent by the relevant authorities will be taken into consideration. If the main studies took place outside the European Union, the candidate's qualification must have been recognised by a body delegated officially for the purpose by one of the European Union Members States (such as a national Ministry of Education) and a document attesting so must be submitted with the application by the closing date.

⁹ EBA Internal language arrangements \(EBA DC 003\)

Candidates are expected to fulfil the following competencies that may be assessed during interviews:

- Ability to manage own workload and work without close supervision;
- Have a highly developed sense of responsibility;
- Be able to work and deliver to tight deadlines;
- Ability to work efficiently under time pressure;
- Have very good communication skills;
- Be a good team player with strong inter-personal skills.

3. Equal opportunities

As a European Union Authority, the EBA is committed to providing equal opportunities to all its employees and applicants for employment. As an employer, the EBA is committed to ensuring gender equality and to preventing discrimination on any grounds. It actively welcomes applications from all qualified candidates from diverse backgrounds, across all abilities, without any distinction on any ground such as sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age, marital status or other family situation or sexual orientation, and from the broadest possible geographical basis amongst the EU Member States.

In particular, the EBA encourages the applications of women for the positions where they are currently under-represented.

4. Selection procedure

The selection procedure will include the following:

4.1. A selection committee will be established for each vacancy notice whose members are of the same or higher grade than the advertised position. Candidates invited to interviews and to sit written tests shall be informed of the composition of the selection committee in the invitation.

4.2. The selection committee will analyse the application documents (curriculum vitae, motivation letter, and eligibility criteria grid) of applicants with reference to the eligibility and selection criteria and will establish a shortlist. Shortlisted candidates may be invited to interviews and to sit written tests. Interviews and written tests may possibly be held remotely.

Written tests will be carried out in English and will be related to the job and designed to test the ability to communicate in written English, knowledge and competencies related to the job, and drafting skills. Total mark for written test: 10 points. The minimum score to pass: 6 points.

The interview will aim to assess the motivation and the professional knowledge of the candidates as well as their suitability to perform the duties mentioned under main responsibilities. The interview will be held in English. The total mark for the interview: 10 points. The minimum score to pass: 6 points.

Successful candidates with a total score equal to and above 12 points will be placed on the reserve list, which will be valid until 31 December 2022. It may be renewed. Inclusion on the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment. The successful candidate will be selected from the established reserve list which may also be used for the recruitment of a similar post depending on the needs of the EBA. When a vacancy becomes available, candidates on the reserve list may be contacted for additional interviews.

Please note that the selection committee's work and deliberations are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden. Any contact made by the candidates or third parties in order to influence the members of the selection committee in relation to the selection constitutes grounds for disqualification from the selection procedure.

5. Appointment and conditions of employment

5.1 Contract type, duration and starting date:

The successful candidate will be offered a temporary agent¹⁰ fixed-term contract of three years with a probation period of nine months and the possibility of extension.

The estimated starting date is 1 June 2021.

Information reserved for candidates employed as temporary agents under Article 2 (f) of the CEOS in other EU agencies: If the successful applicant from the external selection procedure is already a member of temporary staff 2(f) in another EU Agency, the relevant provisions of the Decision of the Management Board laying down general implementing provisions on the procedure governing the engagement and use of temporary staff under Article 2(f) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union(EBA/DC/2015/126)¹¹ will apply.

5.4 Place of employment

The offices of the European Banking Authority are located on Floors 24 – 27, Europlaza, 20 Avenue André Prothin, 92927 Paris, La Défense, France.

5.5 Ethics obligations

Independence and high standards of professional conduct are crucial for ensuring high standards and excellence for the work of the EBA. The Agency also strives to ensure that its staff do not have any interests that could affect their impartiality.

The successful candidate will be required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make an annual declaration with respect to any interests, which might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence. In addition, the successful candidate will be bound to professional secrecy and to confidentiality requirements while working at the EBA and after having left; he/she will have to confirm their compliance with these requirements on a specific declaration of intention.

Before recruiting a member of staff, the EBA's Executive Director will examine whether the candidate has any personal interest, which may impair his /her independence, or any other conflict of interest. To that end, the applicant, using a specific form, shall inform the Executive Director of any actual or potential conflict of interest.

Former staff members will be bound to seek clearance from the EBA before engaging in another activity for two years after leaving the Agency. If that activity is related to the work carried out during the last three years of service at the EBA, and it could lead to a conflict with the legitimate interests of the EBA, the Agency can give its approval subject to any conditions it sees fit or forbid the activity.

For more information on ethics obligations, please refer to the following documents:

- Decision of the Management Board EBA DC 006 of 12 January 2011 on EBA Code of Good Administrative Behaviour;¹²

¹² EBA Code of Good Administrative Behaviour (EBA DC 006)

- Decision of the Executive Director EBA DC 104rev1 of 10 May 2017 on the EBA’s Policy on Independence and Decision Making Processes for avoiding Conflicts of Interest (Conflict of Interest Policy) for Staff and other Contractual Parties;¹³
- Commission Decision C(2018) 4048 final of 29 June 2018 on outside activities and assignments and on occupational activities after leaving the Service;¹⁴
- Decision of the Executive Director EBA DC 271 of 26 April 2019 on the Ethics Guidelines for EBA staff.¹⁵

6. Submission of Applications

Applications including a curriculum vitae in the Europass format¹⁶, a motivation letter, and a filled eligibility criteria grid, dated and signed should be submitted in English in pdf format to the following address: EBA-Applications@eba.europa.eu by 22 March 2021 at 12.00 noon Paris time. Please indicate the reference number of this selection, your name and surname in the subject of your email.

The EBA will disregard any application received after deadline. Applicants are strongly advised not to wait until the last day to submit their applications, since heavy internet traffic or fault with the internet connection could lead to difficulties in submission. The EBA cannot be held responsible for any delay due to such difficulties.

Only complete applications will be accepted and considered. In order for the application to be considered complete candidates must send all documents: curriculum vitae in the Europass format, motivation letter, and eligibility criteria grid dated and signed and a copy of the document formally recognising your qualification within the EU, if applicable, (see footnote 8) before the deadline.

Candidates should assess and check before submitting their application whether they fulfil all the requirements as specified in the vacancy notice, particularly in terms of qualifications and relevant professional experience.

Professional experience indicated on the curriculum vitae is only counted from the time the candidate obtained the certificate or diploma required for the position and if it is on a paid basis (including study grants or internship grants). PhDs may be counted as professional experience if the candidate received a study grant or salary during the period of the PhD studies. The maximum duration counted for a PhD is three years provided that the PhD has been successfully concluded by the closing date for applications of the selection procedure.

Start and end dates of all previous positions and whether they were full time or part time must be indicated on the curriculum vitae. Freelance or self-employed candidates must provide either a copy of the entry in the relevant trade register, or any official document (for example a tax return document) showing clearly the length of the relevant professional experience. Details of any professional experience, training, research or studies must be given on the application form. Candidates must be able to provide of supporting documents clearly showing duration and nature of experience upon request.

The address indicated on the curriculum vitae will be used as the location from which the candidates invited to interviews travel.

At this stage, please do not send supporting documents (copies of ID cards, passports, diplomas, etc.) unless it is to demonstrate the recognition of your qualification within the EU, if applicable, (see footnote 8).

7. Data protection

The EBA will ensure that candidates' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EU) 2018/1725¹⁷. This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

8. Appeal Procedure

Candidates who consider that their interests have been prejudiced by any decision related to the selection procedure can take the following actions:

8.1 Request for review of the decisions taken by the Selection Committee

Within ten days of the date of the letter notifying the candidate of a decision taken by the Selection Committee, he/she may submit a written request for a review of such a decision, setting out the reasons for the request, to the following e-mail address: EBA-vacancies@eba.europa.eu

8.2 Appeals

a) The candidate may lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations within the time limits provided for, at the following address:
