WHAT IS THE EBA?

The EBA is an independent European Union Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EU) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010².

With a view to improving the functioning of the European Union internal market, the EBA works to ensure a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence, and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS), the EBA works closely together with its sister authorities, the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA) and the European Securities Market Authorities (ESMA), as well as the Joint Committee and the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB).

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

² Regulation (EU) No 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010 establishing a European Supervisory Authority (European Banking Authority), amending Decision No 716/2009/EC and repealing Commission Decision 2009/78/EC (OJ L 331, 15.12.2010, p. 1).

WHAT IS THE JOB ON OFFER?

Main purpose

As a member of the Prudential Regulation and Supervisory Policy Department, the Policy Expert will report to the Head of the Risk-Based Metrics Unit. The Policy Expert will play an important role in the development of technical standards, guidelines and reports in the area of securitisation and covered bonds.

The successful candidate will also be expected to contribute to other works of the Prudential Regulation and Supervisory Policy Department with particular reference to the areas covered by the Risk-Based Metrics Unit, that is credit, market and operational risk in addition to investment firms.

Main responsibilities

- Prepare policy stances and provide policy advice in the area of covered bonds and securitisation;
- Quantitative and qualitative analysis of developments in the areas of securitisation, covered bonds and other related topics, contributing to the development of reports and/or opinions;
- Facilitate external consultations, implementation studies and training in the area of covered bonds and securitisation;
- Effectively cooperate with the other ESAs and the ESRB, especially with a view to the development of coordinated and possibly joint policy stances, guidelines and standards;
- Provide support to internal committees and subgroups and their chairpersons;
- Externally represent the EBA at a technical level in his/her area of expertise;
- Perform administrative tasks where required;
- Execute other related tasks as sought by the Head of the Risk-based Metrics Unit.

WHAT DO WE OFFER YOU?

The EBA is an equal opportunities employer and is dedicated to recruit, develop and retain a diverse and talented workforce by upholding principles of equal opportunity and impartiality. To this end, the EBA warmly welcomes applications from all qualified candidates, regardless of age, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation or identity, disability, ethnic or social origin, religion or belief, and cultural background. All EBA staff members are committed to fostering an open and inclusive workplace culture. The EBA encourages the applications of women for positions where they are currently under-represented. For more information, please refer to <https://www.eba.europa.eu/about-us/diversity-and-inclusion>.

If you consider yourself to have a physical, mental, intellectual or sensory disability, please indicate any adjustments or arrangements needed, relating to your disability, to EBA-vacancies@eba.europa.eu, so that the EBA can ensure your full and equal participation in the selection process.

The EBA, as an EMAS registered organisation, is committed to continuously improving its environmental performance and reducing its carbon footprint. For more information, please refer to <https://www.eba.europa.eu/about-us/sustainable-eba>.

As part of the EBA team, you will play an active role in an organisation that makes a difference to the life of all EU citizens/consumers by contributing to financial stability across the EU and safeguarding the integrity, efficiency, and orderly functioning of the EU banking sector.

You will have the opportunity to change perspectives, to expand your network, to benefit from an enriched experience in a multinational and multicultural environment, to develop your career as well as new competencies.

Furthermore, you will be joining the EBA at an exciting time as the Authority expanded its mandate with the implementation of the European Markets in Crypto-Assets Regulation (MiCA) and the EU Digital Operational Resilience Act (DORA).

You will live in Paris. The French capital is one of the most inspiring cities in Europe. A walkable and well-connected city with close proximity to other countries in Europe, Paris offers a vivid cultural and culinary experience with its abundance of museums, architectural richness, sparkling monuments such as the Eiffel Tower, top designer shops, and beautiful parks.

The EBA is located at 20 avenue André Prothin, 92400, Courbevoie, France (Floors 24 to 27 of the EUROPLAZA tower), in “La Défense” area, the largest business district in Europe and the fourth largest in the world.

Your contract will be for a duration of 3 years and can be extended for an additional 3 years. Any further extension would be indefinite.

You will benefit from work-life balance with teleworking flexibility, learning and development opportunities such as language trainings, social integration as well as free access for children to the European school facilities.

As an indication, your basic monthly salary before any deductions or allowances can be found here. In addition to the basic salary, you may be entitled to a correction coefficient applicable to France and various allowances, such as expatriation allowance, household allowance, and family allowances.

More information about your rights and obligations can be found in the Staff Regulations and the CEOS.

must be able to provide supporting documents clearly showing the duration and nature of their professional experience upon request. PhDs may be counted as professional experience if the candidate received a study grant or salary during the period of the PhD studies. The maximum duration counted for a PhD is three years provided that the PhD has been successfully concluded by the closing date for applications of the selection procedure.

The address indicated on the curriculum vitae will be recognised as proof of residence to be used for defining travel reimbursements, etc (if applicable).

WHAT IS THE SELECTION PROCEDURE?

A Selection Board¹⁵ will be established to assess the application documents (curriculum vitae, motivation letter, and eligibility criteria grid) of applicants with reference to the eligibility and selection criteria and to establish the final reserve list.

Candidates who do not meet all the eligibility criteria will be excluded from the selection procedure. Eligible candidates will then be scored on the essential technical competencies criteria. Those who meet all the essential technical competencies criteria will be scored against the advantageous technical competencies criteria. Those candidates who do not meet all the essential technical competencies criteria will not be assessed further.

The Selection Board will invite the shortlisted candidates (maximum of 8)¹⁶, who best correspond to the profile sought and on condition that they have achieved a score of at least 60% during the evaluation of applications, to the interview and written test phase. Interviews and written tests may be held remotely. Shortlisted candidates will be asked to provide supporting documents proving their eligibility before the interview and written test phase. Where the Selection Board identifies that a candidate has not reached the threshold to pass the written test may have their invitation to interview withdrawn.

After the evaluation of interviews and written tests, the Selection Board will draw up a list of the most suitable candidates (“reserve list”) to be proposed to the Appointing Authority. Only candidates who receive at least 60% of the maximum points at the interview and written test phase will be included in the reserve list that the Appointing Authority will decide to adopt.

Successful candidates who are placed on the reserve list will be informed accordingly. The successful candidate will be selected from the established reserve list which may also be used for the recruitment of a similar position depending on the needs of the EBA. When a vacancy becomes available, candidates on the reserve list may be contacted for additional interviews. It should be noted that inclusion on the reserve list does not imply entitlement to employment in the Agency.

In accordance with Articles 11 and 11a of the Staff Regulations (SR) and Articles 11 and 81 of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS) the successful candidate will be required to make a declaration of any conflict of interest before recruitment. The EBA’s Executive Director will examine whether the successful candidate has any personal interest which may impair his/her independence or any other conflict of interest in relation to the position offered and will adopt appropriate measures. To that end, the successful candidate shall inform the Executive Director of any actual or potential conflict of interest using a specific form. More information about the ethics requirements can be found on the EBA's website.

Please note that the Selection Board's work and deliberations are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden. Any contact made by the candidates or third parties with the members of the Selection Board in relation to the selection constitutes grounds for disqualification from the selection procedure.

¹⁵ Article 30 and Article 3 of Annex III of the Staff Regulations.

¹⁶ In the case of equal performance, the number of candidates will be adjusted accordingly.

Information reserved for candidates employed as temporary agents under Article 2 (f) of the CEOS in other EU agencies: If the successful applicant is already a member of temporary staff 2(f) in another EU Agency, the relevant provisions of the Decision of the Management Board laying down general implementing provisions on the procedure governing the engagement and use of temporary staff under Article 2(f) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union(EBA/DC/2015/126)¹⁷ will apply.

EBA will ensure that candidates' personal data is processed as required by Regulation (EU) 2018/1725¹⁸. This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

IN CASE OF COMPLAINT AND APPEAL

Candidates who consider that their interests have been prejudiced by any decision related to the selection procedure can take the following actions:

Request for review of the decisions taken by the Selection Board

Within ten calendar days of the date of the letter notifying the candidate of a decision taken by the Selection Board, he/she may submit a written request for a review of such a decision, setting out the reasons for the request, to the following e-mail address: EBA-vacancies@eba.europa.eu
