

Sebastian Stodulka

Sebastian has been working for the World Savings and Retail Banking Institute (WSBI) & European Savings and Retail Banking Group (ESBG) since 2014, where he currently holds the position of Head of Regulatory Affairs. The focus areas on which his team and he are working on include banking supervision, banking resolution, deposit insurance, capital markets, sustainable finance, anti-money laundering, consumer and investor protection, data protection, financial technology (FinTech), SME financing, financial and non-financial reporting, financial education, corporate governance, and accounting.

Prior to becoming Head of Regulatory Affairs, Sebastian advised on banking supervision, resolution and prudential regulation. Before joining WSBI-ESBG, he worked on MEP Othmar Karas' team, who was at the time also a Vice-President of the European Parliament.

Sebastian is an Advisory Board member of the European Banking Institute (EBI), he is active in the European Banking Industry Committee (EBIC) as well as Financial Data Exchange (FinDatEx) as an Alternate Steering Group Member, and he is a Mentor in the Be.Face network.

He holds a law degree from the Karl-Franzens Universität Graz, a post-graduate LL.M. degree in European law from the Europa-Institut Saarbrücken, and he also studied in Spain.

Sebastian is an Austrian national and native German speaker. He is also fluent in English, French and Spanish.