

Guidelines compliance table

EBA/GL/2015/07 Appendix 1

06 August 2015 – Updated 12
November 2018

Guidelines on the interpretation of the different circumstances when an institution shall be considered as failing or likely to fail under Article 32(6) of Directive 2014/59/EU

The following competent authorities* comply or intend to comply with EBA's Guidelines on failing or likely to fail:

		Competent authority	Complies or intends to comply	Comments
Member State
BE	Belgium	National Bank of Belgium	Yes	As at 06.10.2015, notification date.
BG	Bulgaria	Българска народна банка (Bulgarian National Bank)	Yes	As at 29.09.2015, notification date. The Bulgarian National Bank (BNB) is also a competent authority under the CRR. We were requested by the EBA to send two separate notifications where a notification is required both by the competent authority and by the resolution authority. Then BNB is responsible for banks only (as opposed to investment firms).
		Комисия за финансов надзор (Financial Supervision Commission)	No Response	No notification received
CZ	Czech Republic	Česká Národní Banka (Czech National Bank)	Yes	As at 10.08.2018, notification date.

				Guidelines are expected to be completed for the supervised companies no later than 30 June 2019.
HR	Croatia	Hrvatska narodna banka (Croatian National Bank)	Yes	As at 06.08.2018, notification date. The EBA Guidelines on the interpretation of different circumstances when an institution shall be considered as failing or likely to fail under Article 32(6) of Directive 2014/59 (EBA/GL/2015/07) have been transposed into CNB's Internal SREP Methodology effective as of 2016. Namely, the process of identification of possible FOLTF institutions is defined in point 1.3.2.1. Identification that credit institution is failing or likely to fail of CNB's Internal SREP Methodology, while the cooperation with the resolution authority on FOLTF credit institutions is defined in the same document under the point 1.3.3. Cooperation with the resolution authority and CNB's internal Procedure for the cooperation between Supervision Area and Resolution Area (both documents are available in Croatian language only).

*The EEA States other than the Member States of the European Union are not currently required to notify their compliance with the EBA's Guidelines. This table is based on information provided from those EEA States on a voluntary basis.

 Please note that, in the interest of transparency, if a competent authority continues to intend to comply after the application date, it will be considered "non-compliant" unless (A) the Guidelines relate to a type of institution or instruments which do not currently exist in the jurisdiction concerned; or (B) legislative or regulatory proceedings have been initiated to bring any national measures necessary to comply with the Guidelines in force in the jurisdiction concerned.

Notes

Article 16(3) of the EBA's Regulations requires national competent authorities to inform us whether they comply or intend to comply with each Guideline or recommendation we issue. If a competent authority does not comply or does not intend to comply it must inform us of the reasons. We decide on a case by case basis whether to publish reasons.

The EBA endeavour to ensure the accuracy of this document, however, the information is provided by the competent authorities and, as such, the EBA cannot accept responsibility for its contents or any reliance placed on it.

For further information on the current position of any competent authority, please contact that competent authority. Contact details can be obtained from the EBA's website www.eba.europa.eu.
