

Beata Maria Mrozowska - Bartkiewicz

Beata Mrozowska – Bartkiewicz graduated from University of Warsaw, Faculty of Law in 1989. She completed her legal training at the Polish Ministry of Justice passing the judge's examination and next after a training becoming a legal counsel in 1997. She practiced Civil Law, Civil Procedure Law, Penal Law and Penal Procedure Law. Starting her career path, she worked at the Polish Ministry of Finance between 1990 and 2000, holding a position of the Deputy Director of Financial Institution Department. Later on she has provided legal services as a legal counsel for the financial institutions since 2000, specializing in insurance, banking, pension funds and other financial institutions and she continues her practice in this field today. She was a co-author of the book "Commercial Insurance Law" published in 1998 and the author of numerous articles on insurance law, which all gained her a place as a speaker on conferences in the field of Insurance and Financial Law. She has also served as a Member of "Assurance Law" specialised journal devoted to insurance law since 1994. With years of extensive experience, she yet presents good knowledge of the current EU and Polish insurance market. She became a Member of the Board of Appeal of European Supervisory Authorities in 2011.