

Specific Data Protection Notice

Financial Services and Gender: Data, Trends & Progress in the EU and beyond, 15 November 2024, 12:00-14:00 CET

The European Banking Authority (EBA) processes your personal data based on Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 (EUDPR).

The following information is provided in accordance with Articles 15 and 16 of the EUDPR.

Who is the controller?

The EBA is the controller with regard to the data processing activities described in this data protection notice. The EBA can be contacted through email using info@eba.europa.eu or in writing using the following address:

DEFENSE 4 – EUROPLAZA
20 Avenue André Prothin CS 30154
92927 Paris La Défense CEDEX

For more information on the EBA, please consult the EBA website <https://eba.europa.eu>.

What personal data do we process, for what purpose, who can access it and how long do we keep them?

Financial Services and Gender: Data, Trends & Progress in the EU and beyond meeting will be held by the EBA in Microsoft Teams. Users must be aware of the fact that the tool runs on external servers and therefore is not appropriate for discussions on sensitive content. Access is possible through computer or mobile device with an internet connection and a web browser or a preinstalled Microsoft Teams application. No other software installation is required.

A Microsoft Teams meeting link has been shared with the speakers and the external stakeholders for them to join the conference virtually.

Participants must be aware that, by joining the meeting, other participants will be able to see their name. In case of questions, they can use the chat and/or audio-video functions.

The EBA processes the following personal data of speakers and participants: name, surname, email address, organisation and country, for the purposes of handling invitations, participation, reporting on the conference and follow-ups.

The personal data will also be processed to allow for online audio-video connection to the conference. Please refer to the Microsoft Teams privacy data notice for more information on the categories of personal data processed while using Microsoft Teams.

The contact details can be accessed by the conference organisation team Executive Office and Governance and External Affairs (GEA) Unit.

The EBA will also keep an anonymised transcript of the messages in the chat with the purpose of improving its presentations.

Participants attending the online conference can ask questions via Teams, by using audio and/or video or by sending their questions via the chat function.

The conference will be recorded. The recordings of the conference will be published on the European Banking Authority YouTube Channel accessible via the EBA Website after the event. Further, we may use snippets of the event on LinkedIn.

The EBA will keep the event material, including an anonymised transcript of the chat, for ten years. For more information on Microsoft Teams' data retention, please refer to the Microsoft Teams privacy data notice.

Why do we process your personal data and under what legal basis?

The processing of your personal data by the EBA for organising this conference is lawful since it is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the EBA (see Article 5(1)(a) EUDPR).

Will the processing of your personal data involve any transfer outside of the EU?

Your personal data is processed within the EU/EEA and will not leave that territory.

For more information on the processing of your personal data by Microsoft Teams, please refer to the Microsoft Teams privacy data notice.

What are your rights regarding your personal data?

As a data subject, an individual whose personal data is processed, you have the following rights:

Access - You have the right of access to your personal data and to relevant information concerning how we use it.

Rectification - You have the right to rectify your personal data, where there are inaccuracies or where data is incomplete.

Erasure - Under certain conditions, you have the right to ask that we delete your personal data.

Objection - You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data on grounds related to your particular situation. If you do so, EBA may only continue processing your personal data where overriding legitimate grounds can be demonstrated or where the processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

Restriction - Under certain conditions, you have the right to ask that we restrict the use of your personal data or momentarily pause the processing conducted on the data.

Right to Withdraw Consent – Where the EBA relies on consent as the legal basis for processing your personal data you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time.

For more information on these rights and details of the exceptions that may apply please see Articles 14 to 25 of EUDPR.

Where you wish to exercise any of your rights, you can send your request by post in a sealed envelope or via email using the contact details provided below.

You have the right to lodge a complaint

If you have any remarks or complaints regarding the way we process your personal data, we invite you to contact the Data Protection Officer (DPO) of the EBA (see section on contact details below).

You have, in any case, the right to lodge a complaint with the European Data Protection Supervisor, our supervisory authority for data protection matters.

Contact details for enquiries regarding your personal data

Should you wish to contact the EBA with regard to the processing of your personal data, we encourage you to do so by email: executiveoffice@eba.europa.eu by stating in the subject “Data Protection Enquiry”.

If you wish to contact the DPO of the EBA personally, you can send an e-mail to dpo@eba.europa.eu or a letter to the postal address of the EBA marked for the attention of the DPO of the EBA.

The postal address of the EBA is DEFENSE 4 – EUROPLAZA, 20 Avenue André Prothin, CS 30154, 92927 Paris La Défense CEDEX, France.
