I work at the Central Bank of Cyprus (CBC) since the year 2000. Initially, I worked on monetary policy issues (before Cyprus adopted the euro) supporting the Monetary Policy Committee of the CBC and creating and publishing the relevant Report. I worked on setting up the forecasting tools for the Cypriot economy and was a member of the Working Group of Forecasting of the eurosystem. Later, I became a full member of the Monetary Policy Committee of the eurosystem. In November 2020 I moved to the Financial Stability Department of the CBC and was a member of the Advisory Technical Committee and the Financial Stability Committee. At the same time I participated in the ESRB GB as a nonvoting member. Recently I took the responsibility of becoming the Head of the Directorate General Financial Stability and Resolution. The new directorate general covers issues such as AML, Financial Conduct, ICT and Cyber risks, Licensing and Authorisations, Resolution and Macroprudential Oversight.
