

Annual Declaration of Interests (ADoI)

You are required to complete and sign this form in order to confirm that you have read and taken note of Article 11a of the Staff Regulations as applied by the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, the Ethics Guidelines (EBA DC 271) and the EBA's Policy on Independence and Decision Making Processes for avoiding Conflicts of Interest ("Conflict of Interest Policy") for Staff and Other Contractual Parties (EBA DC 104rev1).

Signing this declaration should prompt you to consider whether you may have a possible conflict of interest that could affect the performance of your duties at the EBA. The act of signing the declaration should also remind you that when you have a conflict of interest, you should inform the Appointing Authority immediately.

Article 11 para.2 of the Staff Regulations (SR) states that:

An official shall not without the permission of the appointing authority accept from any government or from any other source outside the institution to which he belongs any honour, decoration, favour, gift or payment of any kind whatever, except for services rendered either before his appointment or during special leave for military or other national service and in respect of such service.

Article 11a of the Staff Regulations states that:

- 1. An official shall not, in the performance of his duties and save as hereinafter provided, deal with a matter in which, directly or indirectly, he has any personal interest such as to impair his independence, and, in particular, family and financial interests.*
- 2. Any official to whom it falls, in the performance of his duties, to deal with a matter referred to above shall immediately inform the Appointing Authority. The Appointing Authority shall take any appropriate measure, and may in particular relieve the official from responsibility in this matter.*
- 3. An official may neither keep nor acquire, directly or indirectly, in undertakings which are subject to the authority of the institution to which he belongs or which have dealings with that institution, any interest of such kind or magnitude as might impair his independence in the performance of his duties."*

I hereby declare that:

I have read Article 11a of the Staff Regulations, the Ethics Guidelines (EBA DC 271) and the EBA's Policy on Independence and Decision Making Processes for Avoiding Conflicts of Interest (Conflicts of Interest Policy) for Staff and Other Contractual Parties (EBA DC 104 rev1) and am aware of my obligations.

I attach a list of my current financial interests (or declaration of no financial interests) (annex 1) and sources of conflict of interest (or declaration of no conflict of interests) (annex 2).

I am aware of and follow the rules applicable to the acceptance of gifts as outlined in annex 3.

Whenever I have a conflict of interest, I will alert the Appointing Authority.

Annex 3 Acceptance of gifts

General rule

Gifts offered directly or indirectly by a third party, in the professional context, should not be accepted by EBA staff.

Exceptions

In exceptional cases, a gift can be accepted if:

- It does not compromise or is not perceived to compromise the staff member's objectivity and independence; and
- It does not damage the EBA's public image; and
- Its value does not exceed EUR 50.

Special cases

- If a gift's value exceeds EUR 50 and its acceptance would be in line with social, courtesy or diplomatic usage, the authorization of the Appointing Authority should be sought.
- Any gift above the value of EUR 150 shall always be refused.
- Any sum of money must always be refused.
- Benefits accumulated on private loyalty or membership cards (e.g. railway companies, airlines, hotels etc.) added by the staff member on the occasion of an EBA mission must be exclusively used for EBA business travel purposes in so far as they exceed the yearly EUR 50 limit.

Once the form is completed and signed, please submit it by uploading it with the relevant request in EBA Ethics Workflow.
