The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent European Union Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EU) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010².

The Mission

With a view to improving the functioning of the European Union internal market, the EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS), the EBA works closely together with her sister authorities, the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA) and the European Securities Market Authorities (ESMA), as well as the Joint Committee and the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB).

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

¹ According to the Article 2(f) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS)

² OJ L 56, 4.3.1968, p. 1, as last amended by Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 1023/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 October 2013, OJ L 287, 29.10.2013, p.15

The European Banking Authority is seeking a suitable candidate for the position of a Policy Expert in the Economic Analysis and Impact Assessment Unit for work on impact assessments of various proposed regulatory changes in the areas of capital, market and liquidity regulation and other reforms around the EU banking sector.

Job description

Main purpose

Under the responsibility of the Head of Economic Analysis and Impact Assessment Unit, the Policy Expert will play an important role in carrying out impact assessments of various scope and scale, related to the work on the various mandates under, for example, the CRR/CRD and PSD2 processes and separate Calls for Advice by the European Commission. S/he will also participate in technical projects carried out by the Task Force of Impact Assessment. The successful candidate is also expected to contribute to the projects carried out under the EBA Board of Supervisors and its substructures, the regular EBA monitoring reports and the economic analysis work, producing independent analysis and research on topics relevant to the unit's work programme.

Main responsibilities:

- Preparing policy stances, contributing to speech preparation and providing policy advice with a view to the consistent and effective application of relevant areas of competence covered by the EAIA unit;
- Performing statistical and econometrical analysis;
- Supporting the Unit's impact assessment work on various topics around EU banking sector regulation;
- Ensuring the timely delivery of high quality analysis and reports and managing the process of publications, including seeking and incorporating comments from the relevant bodies;
- Assisting internal committees and subgroups and their chairpersons;
- Effectively liaising with staff from other parts of the EBA as well as with experts from National Competent Authorities;
- Representing the EBA at technical level and in working groups in relation to the Unit's work programme.

Requirements

1. Eligibility Criteria

To be considered eligible, candidates must satisfy all the criteria listed below, by the deadline for submitting applications.
