The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent European Union Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EU) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010¹.

The Mission

With a view to improving the functioning of the European Union internal market, the EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS), the EBA works closely together with her sister authorities, the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA) and the European Securities Market Authorities (ESMA), as well as the Joint Committee and the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB).

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

The EBA is seeking a suitable candidate on secondment² for the position of a Policy Expert at its offices in Paris, France.

Job description

Main purpose:

The European Banking Authority is seeking a suitable candidate for the position of a Policy Expert on secondment to contribute to the work of the Banking Markets, Innovation and Products Unit in the area of securitisation and/or sustainable finance.

Main responsibilities:

- Contributing to the EBA's work on policy development, market monitoring and policy implementation related to securitisation;
- Contributing to the EBA's work on incorporation of environmental, social and governance risks (ESG) into prudential framework, supervision and other tasks of the EBA in the context of the EU sustainable finance strategy;
- Preparing policy stances, policy advice, technical standards, guidelines and reports related to the area of securitisation and/or sustainable finance;
- Coordination and cooperation with the EU competent authorities, contributing and providing support to internal committees and subgroups and their chairpersons;
- To the extent necessary, externally representing the EBA at a technical level by providing expertise in his/her specialised area
- Supporting and contributing to the other activities of the Banking Markets, Innovation and Products Unit.

Requirements

1. Eligibility Criteria

To be considered eligible, candidates must satisfy all the criteria listed below, by the deadline for submitting applications:

1.1 General

- Be a national of a Member State of the European Union, of an European Free Trade Association Member State (Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, and Switzerland), or a country with which the Council has decided to open accession negotiations and which has concluded a specific agreement on staff secondments;
- Be entitled to his/her full rights as a citizen;

² EBA DC 304 - Decision of the Management Board on Secondment of National Experts of 13 December 2019

- Have an excellent knowledge of English as this is the working language of the EBA and a satisfactory knowledge³ of another European Union language⁴;
- Be employed by a) a member of the ESFS (as specified in Article 2 of Regulation (EU) no. 1093/2010), b) a country with which the Council has decided to open accession negotiations and which has concluded a specific agreement on staff secondments for participation in EBA's work within the meaning of Article 75 of the Regulation, c) a public intergovernmental organisation, who are seconded to EBA so that it can use their expertise in a particular field⁵;
- Have worked for their employer on a permanent or contract basis for at least 12 months before their secondment.

1.2 Specific

1.2.1 Qualifications

To be eligible, a candidate must have a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of at least three years attested by a diploma⁶.

1.2.2 Professional experience

In addition to above, candidates must have at least three years of proven fulltime professional experience in administrative, legal, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions after completing the education as mentioned above.

The work experience for eligibility purposes is counted from the award of diploma up to the closing date of applications.

1.2.3 Knowledge of languages

For working purposes, as English is the working language of the EBA⁷, an excellent knowledge of the English language, both written and spoken, is required. Native English speakers will be tested to prove their second language skills, in accordance with section 1.1 of the vacancy notice.

2. Selection criteria

In addition to the above, the following selection criteria will be used:

- Proven knowledge of EU banking regulation or supervision;
- Proven experience in the area of securitisation market monitoring and supervision;

⁴ The official languages of the European Union are: Bulgarian, Croatian, Czech, Danish, Dutch, English, Estonian, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Irish, Italian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Maltese, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Slovak, Slovenian, Spanish, and Swedish.

⁵ In accordance with Article 1 paragraph 2 of the EBA Decision on Secondment of National Experts, the Executive Director of EBA may, on a case-by-case basis, authorise the secondment of an SNE from another employer if the interests of EBA warrant bringing in specific expertise as a temporary measure.

⁶ Only qualifications awarded by EU Member State authorities or European Economic Area (EEA) authorities or qualifications recognised as equivalent by the relevant authorities will be taken into consideration. If the main studies took place outside the European Union, the candidate's qualification must have been recognised by a body delegated officially for the purpose by one of the European Union Members States (such as a national Ministry of Education) and a document attesting so must be submitted with the application by the closing date.

⁷ Decision EBA DC 003 of the Management Board on Internal Language Arrangements.

- Knowledge and/or experience in development of policies for ESG risks management and supervision;
- Proven experience in drafting technical reports, policy documents and/or regulation: please give specific examples of the documents you have drafted in your application;
- Experience in providing information and giving presentations to management on regulatory developments: please give specific examples in your application;
- Proven experience in dealing with a wide range of relevant stakeholders, in particular experience in an EU or international working environment.

Applications will be assessed based on the Eligibility and Selection criteria specified in sections 1 and 2 of the vacancy notice.

For this position, candidates are expected to fulfil the following competencies which may be assessed during interviews:

- Ability to manage own workload and work without close supervision;
- Have a highly developed sense of responsibility;
- Ability to work and deliver to tight deadlines;
- Have very good communication skills;
- Good team-player with strong inter-personal skills and ability to work efficiently under time pressure.

3. Equal opportunities

As a European Union Authority, the EBA will apply a policy of equal opportunities and will take care to avoid any form of discrimination in its recruitment procedures.

4. Selection procedure

The selection procedure will include the following:

4.1. A selection committee will be established for each vacancy notice. Candidates invited to interviews and to sit written tests shall be informed of the composition of the selection committee in the invitation.

4.2. The selection committee will analyse the application documents (curriculum vitae, motivation letter, and eligibility criteria grid) of applicants with reference to the eligibility and selection criteria and will establish a shortlist. Shortlisted candidates may be invited to interviews and to sit written tests.

Written tests will be carried out in English and will be related to the job and designed to test the ability to communicate in written English, knowledge and competencies related to the job, and drafting skills. Total mark for written test: 10 points. The minimum score to pass: 6 points.

The interview will aim to assess the motivation and the professional knowledge of the candidates as well as their suitability to perform the duties mentioned under main responsibilities. The interview will be held in English. The total mark for the interview: 10 points. The minimum score to pass: 6 points.

Successful candidates with a total score equal to and above 12 points will be placed on the reserve list, which will be valid until 31 December 2021. It may be renewed. Inclusion on the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment. The successful candidate will be selected from the established reserve list which may also be used for the recruitment of a similar post depending on the needs of the EBA. When a vacancy becomes available, candidates on the reserve list may be contacted for an additional interview.

Please note that the selection committee's work and deliberations are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden. Any contact made by the candidates or third parties in order to influence the members of the selection committee in relation to the selection constitutes grounds for disqualification from the selection procedure.

5. Appointment and conditions of secondment

5.1 Contract type, duration and starting date:

The successful candidate will be offered the position of Seconded National Expert for a minimum period of 6 up to 24 months with the possibility of extension.

The estimated starting date is 1 September 2020.

5.2 Conditions of secondment

The person to be seconded shall remain in the service of his/her employer throughout the period of secondment. The SNE's employer shall thus undertake to continue to pay the salary, to maintain the social rights, particularly social security and pension.

In accordance with the EBA Decision on secondment of national experts, an SNE shall be entitled to a daily subsistence allowance and a monthly subsistence allowance (established by the Commission each year) paid by the EBA throughout the period of secondment. The allowances are intended to cover SNE's living expenses in the place of secondment on a flat-rate basis and shall in no circumstances be construed as remuneration paid by EBA.

These allowances are subject to the exchange rate as published monthly by the European Commission and the country correction coefficient currently applicable for France (117.7 %).

5.3 Place of secondment

The offices of the European Banking Authority are located on Floors 24 to 27 of the EUROPLAZA, 20 Avenue André Prothin, 92400, Courbevoie, France.

6. Submission of Applications

Applications including a curriculum vitae in the Europass format⁸, a motivation letter, and a filled eligibility criteria grid, dated and signed, and a statement of the employer issued by the applicant's employer supporting his/her application for a position on secondment before the deadline should be submitted in English to the following address: EBA-Applications@eba.europa.eu by: extended to 13 August 2020 (13 July 2020) at 12.00 noon Paris time. Please indicate the reference number of this selection, your name and surname in the subject of your email.

EBA will disregard any application received after deadline. Applicants are strongly advised not to wait until the last day to submit their applications, since heavy internet traffic or fault with the internet connection could lead to difficulties in submission. The EBA cannot be held responsible for any delay due to such difficulties.

Only complete applications will be accepted and considered. In order for the application to be considered complete candidates must send all documents: curriculum vitae in the Europass format, motivation letter, eligibility criteria grid dated and signed, a copy of the document formally recognising your qualification within the EU, if applicable, (see footnote 6) before the deadline and a statement of the employer issued by the applicant's employer (as defined in section 1.1. of the vacancy notice, fourth bullet point) and supporting his/her application for a position on secondment before the deadline.

Candidates should assess and check before submitting their application whether they fulfil all the requirements as specified in the vacancy notice, particularly in terms of qualifications and relevant professional experience.

Professional experience indicated on the curriculum vitae is only counted from the time the candidate obtained the certificate or diploma required for the position and if it is on a paid basis (including study grants or internship grants). PhDs may be counted as professional experience if the candidate received a study grant or salary during the period of the PhD studies. The maximum duration counted for a PhD is three years provided that the PhD has been successfully concluded by the closing date for applications of the selection procedure.

Start and end dates of all previous positions and whether they were full time or part time must be indicated on the curriculum vitae. Freelance or self-employed candidates must provide either a copy of the entry in the relevant trade register, or any official document (for example a tax return document) showing clearly the length of the relevant professional experience. Details of any professional experience, training, research or studies must be given on the application form. Candidates must be able to provide of supporting documents clearly showing duration and nature of experience upon request.

The address indicated on the curriculum vitae will be used as the location from which the candidates invited to interviews travel.
