

Nathalie Aufauvre

Secretary General Autorité de Contrôle Prudentiel et de Résolution

Member of the NGFS steering Committee

From October 2017 to 6 November 2023, Nathalie Aufauvre was Director General for Financial Stability and Operations at the Banque de France and a member of the Committee on the Global Financial System (CGFS), of the FSB Standing Committee on the Assessment of Vulnerabilities (SCAV) and of the BIS Committee on Payments and Market Infrastructures (CPMI). She was a member of the Basel committee on banking supervision (BCBS) from October 2017 to December 2019.

Born in 1960, a graduate of the Institut d'Études Politiques de Paris and holder of a master's degree in economics, she joined the Banque de France in 1984 where she successively held management positions in the Statistics Directorate and then in the Monetary Policy and Market Directorate. In 2006, she was appointed Chief financial officer (CFO) and member of the European Central Bank's Committees in charge of budget and accounting. Nathalie Aufauvre was appointed in 2011 Deputy Secretary General for Strategy before becoming Secretary General of the Banque de France in 2012.