Postponed EBA activities

Further actions to support banks' focus on key operations

As follow up to the decision to support banks' focus on key operations and to limit any non-essential requests in the short term, the EBA has reviewed all ongoing activities requiring inputs from banks in the next months and decided the following:

- To extend the deadlines of ongoing public consultations by two months
- To postpone all public hearings already scheduled to a later date and run them remotely via teleconference or similar means
- To extend the remittance date for funding plans data
- In coordination with the BCBS, to extend the remittance date for the QIS based on December 2019 data.

The detailed changes are listed in the tables below.
