No legislative changes have to be adopted. Until 1 January 2021, resolution powers in the Republic of Croatia were divided between the Croatian Deposit Insurance Agency (formerly the State Agency for Deposit Insurance and Bank Resolution), the Croatian National Bank and the Croatian Financial Services Supervisory Agency. However, from 1 January 2021, when the Act on the Resolution of Credit Institutions and Investment Firms (Official Gazette, 146/2020) entered into force, in addition to the fact that the Croatian Deposit Insurance Agency is no longer a resolution authority, all implementing acts it adopted with regard to European Banking Authority's Guidelines ceased to be valid. At the same time, the Croatian National Bank took over additional resolution powers as well as the obligation to decide on the compliance with the Guidelines previously covered by the Croatian
