

The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent EU Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EC) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010, and published in the Official Journal of the European Union (L 331/12) on 15 December, 2010 as amended by Regulation (EU) No 1022/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2013 regarding the conferral of specific tasks on the European Central Bank pursuant to Council Regulation (EU) No 1024/2013 and published in the Official Journal of the European Union (L 287/6) on 29 October 2013.

The Mission

With a view to improving the functioning of the EU internal market, the EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the ESFS, the EBA works closely together with her sister authorities, EIOPA and ESMA, as well as the Joint Committee and the ESRB.

The EBA is currently inviting applications for a position as a Policy Expert on secondment at its offices in London, United Kingdom.

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

POLICY EXPERT (Quantitative analysis)

Job description

The Policy Expert on secondment we are looking for will play an important role in regulatory efforts of the EBA in the area of assessment of proportionality within the single market in the Credit, Market and Operational Risk Policy Unit in the Regulation Department.

The Quantitative Policy Expert will contribute to the review and analysis of the new EBA's databases of supervisory data based on the common EU standards on reporting, as well as other ad hoc data collections supporting assessments of new regulatory products and reports, with a view to contributing to an internal review on proportionality in the context of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 (CRR) and Directive 2013/36/EU (CRD IV). In addition to this, the Quantitative Expert will participate in other tasks of the data analysis team in the Regulation Department.

The Policy Expert will also contribute to the development of the EBA's policy stances in the EU and other international fora and may represent the EBA externally at a technical level in his/her area of expertise.

The candidate is optimally expected to have a supervisory or statistics background gained in a national competent authority (or similar) and quantitative analysis skills.

Main responsibilities:

- Analysis of relevant data, based mainly from COREP / FINREP, in the context of capital, liquidity and credit risk topics as well as examining the calibration of these prudential metrics and contribution to the development of reports
- Preparing policy stances and providing policy advice regarding the application of proportionality to prudential regulation
- Providing support to internal committees and subgroups and their chairpersons
- Supporting policy experts in the development and ensuring the timely completion of guidelines and binding technical standards in conformity with agreed processes and quality standards
- Facilitating external consultations, implementation studies, training and impact assessments for the respective guidelines and binding technical standards
- Externally representing the EBA on a technical level in his/her area of expertise
- Executing other quantitative and statistical tasks as sought by the Head of Credit, Market and Operational Policy Unit

Requirements

1. Eligibility Criteria

Candidates will be considered eligible for selection on the basis of the following criteria to be fulfilled by the deadline for applications:

1.1 General

- Thorough knowledge of one of the languages of the European Union and a satisfactory knowledge of another language of the European Union;
- Be a national of a Member State of the European Union, of an EFTA Member State, or a country with which the Council has decided to open accession negotiations; and
- Be entitled to his/her full rights as a citizen.

1.2 Specific

1.2.1 Qualifications

To be eligible, a candidate must have a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of at least three years in economics, business administration, statistics, mathematics or related area attested by a diploma.

Only qualifications awarded by EU Member State authorities or EEA authorities or qualifications recognised as equivalent by the relevant EU or EEA Member State authorities will be taken into consideration. If the main studies took place outside the European Union, the candidate's qualification must have been recognised by a body delegated officially for the purpose by one of the European Union Members States (such as a national Ministry of Education) and a document attesting so must be submitted with the application by the closing date.

1.2.2 Professional experience

To qualify for the position, a candidate must have, in addition to the above, at least 2 years of proven fulltime professional experience in the field of bank supervision and/or banking regulation and/or statistical analysis of COREP/FINREP data after completing the education as mentioned in 1.2.1.

The work experience for eligibility purposes is counted from the award of diploma up to the closing date of applications.

1.2.3 Knowledge of languages

For working purposes, as English is the working language of the EBA, an excellent knowledge of the English language, both written and spoken, is required.

Native English speakers will be tested to prove their second language skills.

2. Selection criteria

In addition to the above, the candidate must have:

- Experience in drafting technical reports, policies and/or regulations
- Experience in data analysis
- Programming experience, either of SAS or similar platforms

In addition, it would be advantageous if the candidate has:

- Working experience of the EU supervisory reporting framework
- Working experience in the development of prudential regulation or experience of frontline supervision of small and medium credit institutions
- Previous experience in international regulatory working groups, in particular those related directly to the EBA

Applications will be assessed on the basis of the Eligibility and Selection criteria specified in the vacancy notice (in parts 1 and 2) and these must be met by the deadline for submitting applications.

For this position the candidates are expected to fulfil the following competencies to be assessed during the interviews:

- Ability to manage own workload and work without close supervision
- A highly developed sense of responsibility
- Flexibility and being a fast learner
- A good team player with strong inter-personal skills and the ability to work efficiently under time pressure

3. Equal opportunities

As a European Union agency, the EBA will apply a policy of equal opportunities and will take care to avoid any form of discrimination in its recruitment procedures.

4. Appointment and conditions of engagement, duration and starting date

The position will be offered to the successful candidate as a secondment from a national supervisory authority for a minimum period of 12 months up to 24 months renewable. The home authority shall remain as the employer during the period of secondment.

According to the EBA decision laying down rules on the secondment of national experts to EBA, the seconded national experts (SNEs) are staff employed by a member of the European System of Financial Supervision or by an IGO. In individual cases, SNEs may be accepted from other employers referred to in the decision.

The person to be seconded must have worked for his/her employer on a permanent or contract basis for at least 12 months before his/her secondment and shall remain in the service of that employer throughout the period of secondment. The SNE's employer shall thus undertake to continue to pay the salary, to maintain the social rights, particularly social security and pension.

The estimated starting date is 1 May 2016.

5. Conditions of secondment

In accordance with the EBA decision laying down rules on the secondment of national experts to the EBA, an SNE shall be entitled to a daily subsistence allowance and a monthly subsistence allowance (established by the Commission each year) paid by the EBA throughout the period of secondment.

These allowances are subject to the exchange rate as published monthly by the European Commission and the country correction coefficient currently applicable for the UK.

6. Place of employment

Offices of the European Banking Authority on Floor 45 - 46, One Canada Square, London E14 5AA – United Kingdom.

7. Submission of Applications

Applications including a curriculum vitae in the Europass format: <https://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/editors/en/cv/compose>, motivation letter, eligibility criteria grid, motivation letter, and a statement of the employer issued by the applicant's seconding authority/institution (member of the European System of Financial Supervision or an IGO) supporting his/her application for a position on secondment should be submitted in English to the following address: vacancies@eba.europa.eu by 1 March 2016 at 12:00 noon London time. Only complete applications will be accepted and considered.

EBA will disregard any application received after deadline. Applicants are strongly advised not to wait until the last day to submit their applications, since heavy internet traffic or fault with the internet connection could lead to difficulties in submission. The EBA cannot be held responsible for any delay due to such difficulties.

Candidates should assess and check before submitting their application whether they fulfil all the requirements as specified in the vacancy notice, particularly in terms of qualifications and relevant professional experience.

Professional experience indicated in the curriculum vitae are counted only from the time the candidate obtained the certificate or diploma required for the position and if it is on paid basis (including study grants or internship grants). PhD s may be counted as professional experience if the candidates received a study grant or salary during the time of PhD studies. The maximum duration counted for PhD is three years provided that the PhD has been successfully concluded by the closing date for applications of the selection procedure.

Start and end dates of all previous positions and whether full time or part time work should be indicated in the curriculum vitae. Freelance or self-employed candidates must provide either a copy of the entry in the relevant trade register, or any official document (for example a tax revenue) showing clearly the length of the relevant professional experience. Details of any professional experience, training, research or studies must be given on the application form. Candidates must be able to provide photocopies of supporting documents clearly showing duration and nature of experience upon request.

The address indicated in the CV will be used as the location from which the candidates invited to interviews travel.

Please at this stage, please do not send supporting documents (copies of ID cards, passports, diplomas, etc.).

8. Data protection

EBA will ensure that candidates' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data. This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

9. Appeal Procedure

Candidates who consider that their interests have been prejudiced by any decision related to the selection procedure can take the following actions:

9.1 Request for review of the decisions taken by the Selection Committee

Within ten days of the date of the letter notifying the candidate of a decision taken by the Selection Committee, he/she may submit a written request for a review of such a decision, setting out the reasons for your request, to: e-mail address: vacancies@eba.europa.eu.

9.2 Appeals

a) The candidate may lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities and Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities, within the time limits provided for, at the following address:

The Executive Director
European Banking Authority
Selection procedure: Ref. REG CREMOP SEC 06/2016
Floor 45 - 46, One Canada Square,
London E14 5AA – United Kingdom

b) The candidate can submit a judicial appeal under Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and Article 91 of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities to the:

European Union Civil Service Tribunal
Boulevard Konrad Adenauer
Luxembourg 2925

Please note that the appointing authority does not have the power to amend the decisions of a selection board. The Civil Service Tribunal has consistently held that the wide discretion enjoyed by selection boards is not subject to review by the Civil Service Tribunal unless rules which govern the proceedings of selection boards have been infringed.

For details of how to submit an appeal, please consult the website of the European Union Civil Service Tribunal: <http://curia.europa.eu>. The time limits for initiating these two types of procedure start to run from the time you are notified of the act allegedly prejudicing your interests.

9.3 Complaint to the European Ombudsman

It is also possible to lodge a complaint to the European Ombudsman pursuant to Article 228(1) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and in accordance with the conditions laid down in the Decision of the European Parliament of 9 March 1994 on the Staff Regulations and the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, published in Official Journal of the European Union L 113 of 4 May 1994:

European Ombudsman
1 Avenue du Président Robert Schuman
CS 30403
67001 Strasbourg Cedex
France
<http://www.ombudsman.europa.eu>

Complaints made to the Ombudsman have no suspense effect on the period laid down in Articles 90(2) and 91 of the Staff Regulations for lodging, respectively, a complaint or an appeal with the European Union Civil Service Tribunal under Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the EU. Furthermore under Article 2(4) of the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, any complaint lodged with the Ombudsman must be preceded by the appropriate administrative approaches to the institutions and bodies concerned.
