The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent European Union Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EU) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010.²

The Mission

With a view to improving the functioning of the European Union internal market, the EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS), the EBA works closely together with her sister authorities, the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA) and the European Securities Market Authorities (ESMA), as well as the Joint Committee and the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB).

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

¹ According to the Article 3(a) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS)

² OJ L 56, 4.3.1968, p. 1, as last amended by Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 1023/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 October 2013, OJ L 287, 29.10.2013, p.15.

The EBA is seeking a suitable candidate for the position of a SharePoint Specialist at its offices in London, United Kingdom.

Job description

Main purpose

The EBA IT Unit provides, operates, and supports the IT infrastructure and applications required by the EBA. IT operations and development of applications are done in house while the IT Infrastructure is outsourced to independent service providers. The SharePoint specialist will join the EBA IT team and contribute to the operating and development of IT solutions in the pre-production and production environment.

The successful candidate will have the possibility to develop and design applications in relation to the work program of EBA and in the area of support systems of the EBA. The target user community in the EBA and the National Supervisory Authorities will grow significantly in the next years.

Main responsibilities:

- Developing, integration, testing and documenting the application software modules implemented in SharePoint to meet agreed business specifications
- Performing technical testing and preparing the relevant technical documentation
- Investigating, diagnosing and resolving bugs and incidents of applications developed in the mentioned technology (second and third level support)
- Operating and maintaining SharePoint and related databases solutions
- Tracking, coordinating and following-up service requests for infrastructure with the IT service providers in accordance with agreed service levels
- Assisting and supporting the EBA users' inquiries around MS Office products including development of simple VBA modules in MS Access, MS Excel or MS Word

The EBA IT Team is relatively small and requires sharing of tasks amongst its members. Shared tasks include for example:

- Contributing to drafting technical specifications for tender procedures and participating in the evaluation
- Contributing to the planning of SharePoint activities in particular related to the EBA's environment
- Purchasing of hardware and software from existing framework contracts of the EBA
