

The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent EU Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EC) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010, and published in the Official Journal of the European Union (L 331/12) on 15 December, 2010.

The Mission

With a view to improving the functioning of the EU internal market, the EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the ESFS, the EBA works closely together with her sister authorities, EIOPA and ESMA, as well as the Joint Committee and the ESRB.

The EBA is currently inviting applications for a position as a Policy Expert (Liquidity and/or Leverage) at its offices in London, United Kingdom.

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

POLICY EXPERT (Liquidity and/or Leverage)

Job description

The European Banking Authority is seeking a suitable candidate for the position of a Policy Expert in the area of liquidity and/or leverage. In particular the successful candidate will, under the overall management of the Director of Regulation and the Head of the Capital and Asset/Liability Management Unit, contribute to the development of guidelines and binding technical standards as part of the EU common rulebook and will facilitate national authorities in implementing and applying these guidelines and standards in a consistent way in day-to-day supervisory practices.

The Policy Expert will also contribute to the development of the EBA's policy stances in the EU and other international fora and will represent the EBA externally at a technical level in his/her area of expertise.

Main purpose

Supporting the EBA's regulatory and policy work in the area of liquidity and/or leverage ratio and contribute in this area to a consistent and effective application of the European legislation and the development of the Single Rule Book in banking; contributing to development of high-quality regulation as well as ensuring their effective and consistent application.

Main responsibilities:

- Preparing policy stances and providing policy advice in his/her area of expertise;
- Participating in the development of guidelines and binding technical standards in line with the EBA Work Program;
- Ensuring the timely completion of guidelines and binding technical standards;
- Externally representing the EBA at a technical level in his/her area of expertise;
- Providing support to internal committees and subgroups and their chairpersons;
- Facilitating external consultations, implementation studies, training and impact assessments for the respective guidelines and binding technical standards;
- Cooperating effectively with the other ESAs and the ESRB, especially with a view to the development of coordinated and possibly joint policy stances, guidelines and standards;
- Performing data analysis for a range of policy issues related to liquidity and/or leverage;
- Providing analytical support for the various impact assessment reports linked to liquidity requirements and/or leverage ratio;
- Cooperating with other EBA business areas in the development of data point models on implementing technical standards on supervisory reporting requirements for liquidity coverage ratio, stable funding ratio, and/or leverage ratio;
- Participating in the EBA Q&A process with respect to liquidity and/or leverage ratio.

7. Data protection

EBA will ensure that candidates' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data. This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

8. Appeal Procedure

A candidate who feels to have been treated incorrectly may ask to have his/her application reconsidered by sending, within 20 calendar days of the date postmarked on the letter of notification, a request for review, quoting the number of the selection procedure concerned to the Chairman of the Selection Committee at the following address: European Banking Authority, Floor 18 Tower 42, London EC2N 1HQ, United Kingdom.

The Selection Committee will reconsider the application and notify the candidate of its decision within 45 calendar days of receipt of the letter.

If a candidate considers that he/she has been adversely affected by a particular decision, he/she can lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities and Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities, at the following address:

The Executive Director
European Banking Authority
Selection procedure: Ref. REG CALM TA 17/2013
Floor 18 Tower 42
London EC2N 1HQ
United Kingdom

The complaint must be lodged within 3 months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure (see Staff Regulations as modified by Council Regulation No 723/2004 of 22 March 2004 published in the Official Journal of the European Union L 124 of 27 April 2004 – <http://europa.eu/eur-lex>) starts to run from the time the candidate is notified of the act adversely affecting him/her.

You can submit a judicial appeal under Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the EU (ex Art. 236 TEC) and Article 91 of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities to the:

European Union Civil Service Tribunal
Boulevard Konrad Adenauer
Luxembourg 2925

Please note that the appointing authority does not have the power to amend the decisions of a selection board. The Civil Service Tribunal has consistently held that the wide discretion enjoyed by selection boards is not subject to review by the Civil Service Tribunal unless rules which govern the proceedings of selection boards have been infringed.

For details of how to submit an appeal, please consult the website of the European Union Civil Service Tribunal: http://curia.europa.eu/en/instit/txtdocfr/index_tfp.htm. The time limits for initiating these two types of procedure (see Staff Regulations as amended by Council Regulation (EC) No 723/2004 of 22 March 2004, published in Official Journal of the European Union L 124 of 27 April 2004 — <http://eur-lex.europa.eu>) start to run from the time you are notified of the act allegedly prejudicing your interests.

It is also possible to complain to the European Ombudsman pursuant to Article 195(1) of the Treaty establishing the European Community and in accordance with the conditions laid down in the Decision of the European Parliament of 9 March 1994 on the Staff Regulations and the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, published in Official Journal of the European Union L 113 of 4 May 1994:

European Ombudsman
1 Avenue du Président Robert Schuman
CS 30403
67001 Strasbourg Cedex
France
<http://www.ombudsman.europa.eu>

Complaints made to the Ombudsman have no suspensive effect on the period laid down in Articles 90(2) and 91 of the Staff Regulations for lodging, respectively, a complaint or an appeal with the European Union Civil Service Tribunal under Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the EU (ex Art. 236 TEC). Furthermore under Article 2(4) of the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, any complaint lodged with the Ombudsman must be preceded by the appropriate administrative approaches to the institutions and bodies concerned.
