

Alessandra Perrazzelli

Alessandra Perrazzelli is Deputy Governor of the Bank of Italy since May 10, 2019.

She previously was Vice President of A2A and Member of the Board of Monte Titoli SpA, since May 2017.

From 2013 to 2017 Alessandra was Country Manager of Barclays in Italy. She repositioned the Bank on the market, restructuring the business non core and selling the retail franchise.

From 2011 to 2017 she served on the Board of Azienda Trasporti Milanese (ATM) and engaged in the relaunch and restructuring of the company at the time of EXPO 2015.

Previously, Alessandra was Head of International Regulatory Relations in the Intesa Sanpaolo Group and CEO of Intesa Sanpaolo Eurodesk.

She started her career as a business lawyer and worked for many years in top law firms both in New York and Brussels.

From 2010 to 2013 she was Founder and President of Valore D, an association of leading companies supporting women in top positions and promoting talent in organizations. Along with that, she founded and promoted Project Gemma, to enhance women talent within the Intesa Sanpaolo Group.

In 2007 she was awarded the prestigious Premio Bellisario in Italy and in 2004 she was mentioned among the best 100 antitrust and corporate lawyers by Global Competition Review.

Alessandra graduated cum laude from Genoa University Law School and New York University Law School.

She is a Stanford alumna since 2018, Stanford University Executive Program.