

Curriculum Vitae

Vladimír Dvořáček

Vladimír Dvořáček is a member of the Bank Board of the National Bank of Slovakia and Executive Director of the Financial Market Supervision Unit. He oversees the supervision and regulation of the banking sector, securities market, insurance and pension sector, as well as macro-prudential policy, financial stability and financial consumer protection.

He represents the National Bank of Slovakia as a member of the Board of Supervisors of the European Banking Authority (EBA) and as a member of the Supervisory Board of the Single Supervisory Mechanism at the European Central Bank. He is also a non-voting member of the General Board of the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB).

Before 2010 he worked with the Ministry of Finance of the Slovak Republic, serving as General Director of the Financial Market Section. He was responsible for the development of strategies, policies and regulation for the banking, insurance and capital market sectors and the implementation of the European directives. He represented the Slovak Republic on various committees at the international level. From 2004 to 2005 he was a Board Member of the Financial Market Authority in Slovakia.

Vladimír Dvořáček graduated from the University of Economics in Bratislava. He is married with two children.