

Cristina Iglesias-Sarria. Curriculum Vitae.

Cristina Iglesias-Sarria joined Banco de España as Economist of the Research Department of Banco de España in 1982, developing her tasks in banking analysis within Banking Regulation Department. From 2001 to 2008 she was the Head of International Coordination and Advise Division, first within the Banking Regulation Department and since 2006 within Associate General Directorate of Banking Supervision of Banco de España. From 2008 to date is Executive Co-ordinator in the General Directorate of Banking Regulation and Financial Stability.

Besides her internal responsibilities she has developed an intensive international activity. Currently she is the alternate of Fernando Vargas as Member of the Board of Supervisors of the EBA and EBA's MB, and the representative of the Banco de España in the Standing Committee on Oversight and Practices (SCOP) of the EBA and in the SIG/SIB Task Force (BCBS). She has been member of numerous European and international Committees, Groups and Task Forces of the Banking Advisory Committee (BAC), CEBS, ECB Banking Supervisory Committee (BSC), Basel Committee of Banking Supervisors (BCBS), etc.